

Dominator Remote 315 mhz

Face to Face copy instructions

- Hold your old original remote in one hand and your new remote in the other.
- Hold them side by side close enough to touch.
- Push and hold the button you wish to code on the new remote, wait until it flashes twice. Remain holding the button down on the new remote and push and hold the button you are coding from on the old remote. The new remote will flash twice again to indicate it has learnt the code.
- Release both the button on the original remote and the new remote.
